

NOTICE TO MORTGAGE LOAN APPLICANTS: THE RIGHT TO COLLECT YOUR MORTGAGE LOAN PAYMENTS MAY BE TRANSFERRED. FEDERAL LAW GIVES YOU CERTAIN RIGHTS. READ THIS STATEMENT AND SIGN IT ONLY IF YOU UNDERSTAND ITS CONTENTS.

Because you are applying for a mortgage loan covered by the Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act (RESPA) (12 U.S.C. 2601 et seq) you have certain rights under the Federal Law. This statement tells you about those rights. It also tells you what the chances are that the servicing for this loan may be transferred to a different loan servicer. "Servicing" refers to collecting your principal; interest and escrows account payments, if any. If your loan servicer changes, there are certain procedures that must be followed. This statement generally explains those procedures.

TRANSFER PRACTICES AND REQUIREMENTS

If the servicing of your loan is assigned, sold, or transferred to a new servicer you must be given written notice of that offer. The present loan servicer must send you written notice in writing of the assignment, sale or transfer of the servicing not less than 15 days before the effective date of the offer. The new loan servicer must also send you a notice within 15 days after the effective date of the transfer. The present servicer and the new servicer may combine this information in one notice, so long as the notice is sent to you 15 days before the effective date of the transfer. The 15-day period is not applicable if a notice of prospective transfer is provided to you at settlement. The law allows a delay in the time (not more than 30 days after a transfer) for servicers to notify you under certain limited circumstances, when your servicer is changed abruptly. This exception applies only if your servicer is fired for cause, is in bankruptcy proceedings, or is involved in a conservatorship or receivership initiated by a Federal agency. Notices must contain certain information. They must contain the effective date of the transfer of the servicing of your loan to the new servicer, the name, address, and toll-free or collect call telephone number of the new servicer, and toll-free or collect call telephone numbers of a person or department for both your present servicer and your new servicer to answer your questions about the transfer of servicing. During the 60 day period following the effective date of the transfer of the servicing, a loan payment received by your old servicer before it's due date may not be treated by the new loan servicer as late, and a late fee may not be imposed on you.

COMPLAINT RESOLUTION

Section 6 of RESPA (12 U.S.C. 2605) gives you certain consumer rights, whether or not your loan servicing is transferred. If you send a "qualified written request" to your loan servicer concerning the servicing of your loan, your servicer must provide you with written acknowledgement within 20 business days of receipt of your request. A "qualified written request" is a written correspondence, other than notice on payment coupon or other payment medium, supplied by the servicer, which includes your name and account number, and your reasons for the request. Not later than 60 business days after receiving your request, your servicer must make any appropriate corrections to your account, or must provide you with a written clarification regarding any dispute. During this 60 day business day period, your servicer may not provide information to a consumer reporting agency concerning any overdue payment related to such period or qualified written request. A business day is any day, excluding public holidays (State or Federal), Saturday and Sunday.

DAMAGES AND COSTS

Section 6 RESPA also provides for damages and costs for individuals or classes of individuals in circumstances where servicers are shown to have violated the requirements of that section.

SERVICING TRANSFER ESTIMATED BY LENDER

The following is the best estimate of what will happen to the servicing of your mortgage loan: Advisor's Mortgage LLC does not service mortgage loans. We intend to assign, sell or transfer the servicing of your mortgage loan. You will be informed about your servicer at settlement. This is our current business practice, which is subject to change. For all the mortgage loans that we make in a 12-month period after your mortgage loan is funded, we estimate that the percentage of mortgage loans for which we will transfer servicing is between 76% to 100%. This estimate does include assignments, sales or transfers to affiliates subsidiaries. This is only our best estimate and is not binding. Business conditions or other circumstances may affect our future transferring decisions.
